

Bono on prayer

“I pray to get to know the will of God, because then the prayers have more chance of coming true—I mean, that’s the thing about prayer, isn’t it? We don’t do it in a very lofty way in our family. It’s just a bunch of us on the bed, usually, we’ve a very big bed in our house. We pray with all our kids. We read the Scriptures, we pray. ... Sometimes if we go to church on Sunday, we’ll go after church has ended, we’ll go on our own as a family for peace and quiet. And we’ll pray usually for people that we know who are struggling with something.” –Bono

Take a listen to the other amazing things Bono had to say about Jesus...