

Can irritations lead to something good?

I shared a message at Calvary Assembly of God yesterday morning about how God can do something amazing with the irritations that come along in our lives. Please take a listen...